The Ca' Rome' 2016 Barolo Rapet (with 4,000 bottles released) offers savory or meaty aromas accompanying dark fruit, plum, and dried blackberry. This wine is muscular, deep, and shows a dark and concentrated quality of fruit. There is some extra ripeness here as well.

Located in Serralunga d'Alba, the Rapet vineyard sees compact calcareous soils with alternating layers of clay and sand. The vines are planted at 350 to 370 meters above sea level, where cool nighttime temperatures help to block in that Nebbiolo freshness,
